Malvika Choksi

Software Developer

I'm Malvika Choksi, a Software Developer in Surat, India, with 2+ years of experience building fast, responsive and accessible web and mobile applications. I specialize in React, Next.js, TypeScript and Node.js, taking products from Figma designs to production-ready interfaces and the APIs behind them.

Work Experience

Software Developer
Dec 2025 – Present

Olix Lab · Full-time

Building modern, responsive web interfaces using React and Next.js. Focused on delivering performant, accessible, and maintainable frontend solutions for production applications.

Junior Frontend Developer
Sep 2024 – Nov 2025

WIZCODER · Full-time

Developed scalable frontend solutions with React.js and TypeScript. Built reusable components, improved application performance, and collaborated with designers and backend developers across multiple client projects.

Web Developer Intern
Aug 2023 – Dec 2023

MountainsDriven Technologies · Part-time

Developed and maintained web application features using React and JavaScript. Worked on UI improvements, bug fixes, and integrating APIs to deliver smooth user experiences.

Frontend Web Developer
Jul 2022 – Jul 2023

TechnoYuga Soft. Pvt. ltd. · Internship

Built responsive web applications using React.js and modern frontend tools. Collaborated with the team to translate designs into clean, interactive interfaces and gained hands-on experience in component-based development.

Key Projects

Cite Visit

A site-visit management platform. I built the admin panel — the user list with multi-criteria filtering and the user profile views.

React.js · Node.js · Express.js

Cloud Menu

A platform where restaurant owners set up and manage their own digital menu, take customer orders, and generate table-specific QR codes for ordering.

React Native · Expo · Node.js

Litigate Notifier

A legal case management system for lawyers, with case tracking, a scheduling feature, and a calendar view of case details — plus client access to their own case information.

React.js · Node.js · MongoDB

Nidan AI

Live site ↗

A health diagnostics platform with face-scan health reports and separate panels for doctors, patients, and individual users. I built the responsive landing page, focused on clean UI and performance.

Next.js · Tailwind CSS · Framer Motion

E-comm SaaS

A Shopify-style SaaS for diamond jewellery businesses to build and run their own store. I built the admin panel — product creation workflows, product details, images and pricing, and the dashboard UI.

React.js · Redux · Node.js

Welcome Cure

A healthcare platform giving users abroad one month of online health services, with country-wise registration for location-based options. I built the registration and health service interfaces.

React.js · Node.js · MongoDB

ezUTM Manager

A social media link management and analytics platform. I built the dashboard that tracks click activity and surfaces per-link performance insights.

React.js · Node.js · PostgreSQL

Hostsailor

Live site ↗

A hosting services website with plan comparison and signup.

Next.js · Tailwind CSS · Stripe

Huch-Pay

Live site ↗

A digital payments and wallet application.
